

TRUMPET FINGERINGS

Mouthpiece Express
.com

Open T
Pressed F

Diagram illustrating trumpet fingerings for various notes on a staff. The notes are organized into two rows, with a legend above. The legend indicates that an 'Open' fingering is represented by a 'T' and a 'Pressed' fingering by an 'F'. Brackets group notes that share the same fingering.

Row 1 (Notes on a whole staff):

- C: Open (T)
- D: Open (T)
- E: Open (T)
- F: Pressed (F)
- G: Pressed (F)
- A: Pressed (F)
- B: Pressed (F)
- C: Open (T)
- D: Open (T)
- E: Open (T)
- F: Pressed (F)
- G: Pressed (F)
- A: Pressed (F)
- B: Pressed (F)
- C: Open (T)

Row 2 (Notes on a treble clef staff):

- C: Open (T)
- D: Open (T)
- E: Open (T)
- F: Pressed (F)
- G: Pressed (F)
- A: Pressed (F)
- B: Pressed (F)
- C: Open (T)
- D: Open (T)
- E: Open (T)
- F: Pressed (F)
- G: Pressed (F)
- A: Pressed (F)
- B: Pressed (F)
- C: Open (T)

Below the notes, there are two rows of fingerings. The first row shows the fingering for each note in the first row above, and the second row shows the fingering for each note in the second row above. The notes are grouped by brackets, indicating that notes within a group share the same fingering.